MEMORANDUM FOR THE DIRECTOR

SUBJECT: Coverage of Soviet Sea- and Airlift In the IAP

1. No cause for alarm. These matters are covered.
2. In Part III, "Soviet General Purpose Forces," there is some text which deals with both sea- and airlift capabilities. Table IIID 1 on page 51 gives our calculations on amphibious assault and support ships. Table IIIC 8 on page 43 gives our calculations regarding numbers and types of Soviet military transport aircraft.
3. Non-military elements which could be used for augmentation, i.e., the Civil Air Fleet and the Merchant Marine, are specifically excluded from detailed consideration in the IAP per paragraph 3, page 1, under Definition of Soviet General Purpose Forces.
